

This form is to confirm Parent/Guardian consent for their child to apply for the Junior Counselor Program at Pathfinder Ranch.

Application Process: After we receive Parent/Guardian consent, a link to our online Junior Counselor Application will be emailed to the applicant. Also in the email will be two reference forms, one for a Teacher, and one for personal references (we need three references total, one from a teacher, and two personal references). After the application materials have been received, we will contact the applicant to arrange a phone interview. Please allow one week after the interview for our response.

We will request additional information from you if the applicant is selected to take part in the program.

More information about the program can be found in Junior Counselor Information Packet located on our website.
